

BLUES AT HOME

AFTER Thursday's win at Chesham, Wycombe Wanderers now go through to the semi-final of the Rothmans Isthmian League Subsidiary Cup. They have been drawn at home but must await the result of the Harrow Borough v Slough Town tie before knowing their opponents.

In the other half of the competition, Tilbury are at home to Ilford and Harrow home to Carshalton in the quarter-finals. Tilbury or Ilford have home advantage in the next round.

Tilbury are the current holders of the trophy having beaten Croydon in the first ever final last season.

A date for the final has yet to be set but it will be on a neutral ground. As well as the trophy, medals will be provided for the players.
